A Guaranteed Income

The latest suggestion in the War on Poverty is a guaranteed annual income of $3,000 for every family in the U.S. A sort of reverse income tax—if you make $2,000, the government sends you $1,000 to make up the deficit.

Like so many government projects, the right hand ignores what the left hand is doing. For example, what about the retired person drawing Social Security?

An arbitrary limit has been set on how much a person may earn during the year and still draw his Social Security payments. In a good many cases, this limit would leave the family living on Social Security with an income of less than $3,000 a year. So the man who has contributed to Social Security through a long working life would finish out his years on a smaller income than, perhaps, someone who simply didn't like to work, so depended on his government-guaranteed income.

Presumably, if this novel proposition ever becomes law it would eventually wipe out the relief program. In this respect, it would be good.

Maybe a guaranteed family income of $3,000 a year would instill an ambition to earn more in some families who are ready to go down to defeat. Maybe, with even a skimpy $3,000 annual income, there would be fewer juvenile criminals. This saving, alone, could make a big dent in the cost of the program.

Whether or not it may be beneficial in many ways, it's a long step along the road toward socialism.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

To slate or not to slate, that is the question facing Republican premeet committees in Lake County as candidates toss their hats in the ring for offices to be filled in the November general election.

GOP Central Committee Chairman Robert J. Milton, elated with the success of the state slate-making conference, is pushing for a slate making effort at the county level, but avoiding the legislative races and the Congressional race.

It is just possible Milton has a tiger in his tank because many of the committees have already committed themselves to announced or unannounced candidates and will not want to switch at this time.

It would appear on the surface, at least, that an attempt to set up a nominating convention at the local level should be done before any battle lines are drawn and candidates announce their intentions.

Waukegan, committeemen ran into this situation a year ago when they voted to back Eugene McGaughey in the mayor race even though Hollis Austin had already announced his candidacy and was busy campaigning.

The wounds opened by this maneuver never completely healed although Austin urged his supporters to back McGaughey after the latter won a contested primary.

The wheeling and dealing that would accompany slate making at this stage would almost certainly alienate large segments of the voting public as well as many committed candidate workers who might not agree with the convention's choices.

It is one thing to slate a ticket at the state level where the candidates are not known personally by the electorate and quite another to shut out the voters at the local level.

The king makers and the wheeler-dealers will have a chance to select the judge candidates. They ought to leave the voters some voice in the selection of candidates if they want to maintain interest in political parties among the mere people.

Timing is important in selating approval of controversial measures as the members of the Sheriff's office Merit Commission discovered last week.

The commissioners shouldn't have been surprised that their plan to submit an incomplete code for the sheriff's office limited to a ban on political activity by sheriff office staffers was construed as a politically motivated plan.

While we might agree that the elimination of political activity is a good thing in that it will enhance the professional image of the office, now is hardly the time to pinpoint this section of the code.

The enthusiastic support of the political action ban by the Lake County Crime Commission was also to be expected since it stresses the disenchantment with the department which the commission has held since its founding.

It also served to point up the problems Chief Deputy Norris-Froelich is going to encounter from the Commission in his campaign.

It looks like the Lake County Board of Supervisors delayed too long in making an agreement with the City of Waukegan to house contents of the county museum in the old Waukegan library.

The city has already moved its Playground and Recreation department into the former library so it appears the museum collection of artifacts is doomed to a subterranean existence in the county storage depot at the old Nike site near Lake Zurich for a few more months, or

The Lake County Forest Preserve District has advanced an interesting plan to beautify the entrance to Waukegan on Rte. 120, but may encounter opposition from some Forest Preserve Commissioners who feel that the county seat is getting more than its share of county goodies.

This, of course, is the grandiose scheme to turn a low flood-plain into lagoons, golf course, gardens, and recreation area.

Skeptics may view it as a

If You Must Think, Don't Drink!

Alcohol has become an important part of our way of life. This is especially true for the businessman. The National Council on Alcoholism says business and industry annually spend $2 billion dollars on alcohol. The results are absenteeism, accidents and inefficiency. Not included is mass murder on the highways.

After the New Year celebration and a few headaches, we might reconsider the use of alcohol in industry.

A well known speaker was going to talk to an elite group and he was feeling ill at ease. A friend advised him to take a stiff drink of whiskey to relieve his tensions. It worked. The drink helped him forget his nervousness but unfortunately it also helped him to forget parts of his speech.

Alcohol, even in small amounts, generally causes poor retention and shortens the memory span while it is still in the system. Continued heavy use of alcohol sometimes produces a chronic condition in which the memory does not seem to be formed for recent experiences; such users have to call on imagination in place of memory.

No lectures on alcoholism just some thoughts for the individual who enjoys a drink and doesn't have a drinking problem.

If we are working for profit, trying to do a good job, the effect of a drink at lunch should be understood.

Extensive studies have demonstrated the effect of alcohol on the mind, on thinking, memory and on the ability to function quickly and effectively.

Consideration might be given to the duties of the afternoon before having a drink at lunch. If there are reports to study, decisions to be made, analysis or requirements of memory, any alcohol in the system will reduce these abilities. It would be a poor decision to jeopardize the very ability to produce a profit through the misunderstood use of alcohol. (Consideration should also be given to the luncheon guest since he may have important duties in the afternoon.)

From the infrequent lunch to the daily business lunch, there is often a drink or two before eating. The individual may feel that, since he is talking business, the conventional way to get the conversation going is with a drink.

Whether a drink is really necessary is open to question since the same customer with the same problem at 9:00 a.m. will still get a solution. Perhaps the dulling effect of the alcohol will make decisions easier. It appears that we have justified and attached importance to something that may be no more than a habit.

The luncheon drink is time consuming and expensive. Obviously it takes more time to have a drink before lunch than to order lunch immediately. It is not possible to hold lunch under an hour if there is more than one drink. Liquor costs from one to two dollars per meal for two men. Multiply this cost times the lunches per month and per year, it is a big figure.

When lunch is finished, the alcohol breath is not. Contact with someone who has not had alcohol can produce a difficult if not offensive atmosphere. Just as onions or garlic might be avoided due to their social effect, alcohol can have a similar deleterious social effect.

The dulling mental effect of even a small amount of alcohol and the importance of a good relationship with an employer or employee questions the real importance of alcohol at mid-day. Nothing should stand in the way of good performance in the afternoon. (And I drink a toast to that — after 5:00 p.m.)

Rather drastic plan of action just to get rid of a junkyard, but it could be the answer to the problem settling the dispute between the State Highway Department which wants to relocate Skokie Highway on land the City of North Chicago's Park District wants to use for a municipal golf course.

Properly fitted contact lenses, worn as directed, should be safe and comfortable according to the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

Hoover Comments On The "New Left"

The American College Student today is being subjected to a bewildering and dangerous conspiracy perhaps unlike any social challenge ever before encountered by our youth. On many campuses he faces a turbulence built on unrestrained individualism, repulsive dress and speech, outright obscenity, disdain for moral and spiritual values, and disrespect for law and order. This movement, commonly referred to as the "New Left", is complex in its deceitful, absurdity and characterized by its lack of common sense.

Fortunately, a high percentage of the more than 3 million full-time college students are dedicated, hard-working, and serious-minded young people; however, their good deeds and achievements are greatly overshadowed by those who are doing a tremendous amount of talking but very little thinking.

Much of this turmoil has been connected with a feigned concern for the vital rights of free speech, dissent and petition. Hard-core fanatics have used these basic rights of our democratic society to distort the issues and betray the public. However, millions of Americans, who know from experience that freedom and rights also mean duties and responsibilities, are becoming alarmed over the anarchistic and seditious ring of these campus disturbances. "They know liberty and justice are not possible without law and order."

The Communist Party, USA, as well as other subversive groups, is jubilant over these new rebellious activities. The unvarnished truth is that the communist conspiracy is seizing this insurrectionary climate to captivate the thinking of rebellious-minded youth, and coax them into the communist movement itself or at least agitate them into serving the communist cause. This is being accomplished primarily by a two pronged offensive—a much-publicized college speaking program and the campus-oriented communist W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America. Therefore, the communist influence is cleverly injected into civil disobedience and reprisals against our economic, political and social system.

There are those who scoff at the significance of these student flare-ups, but let us make no mistake: the Communist Party does not consider them insignificant. The participants of the New Left are part of the 100,000 "state of mind" members Gus Hall, the Party's General Secretary, refers to when he talks of "Party strength." He recently stated the Party is experiencing the greatest upsurge in its history with a "one to two thousand" increase in membership in the last year.

For the first time since 1959, the Party plans a national convention this spring. We can be sure that high on the agenda will be strategy and plans to win the New Left and other new members. A communist student, writing in an official Party organ recently stated, "There is no question but that the New Left will be won."

Thus, the communists' intentions are abundantly clear. We have already seen the effects of some of their step-by-step activities, and I firmly believe a vast majority of the American public is disgusted and sickened by such social orgies. One recourse is to support and encourage the millions of youth who refuse to swallow the communist bait. Another is to let it be known far and wide that we do not intend to stand idly by and let demagogues make a mockery of our laws and demolish the foundation of our Republic.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

There is much expression of extremism in news media and social talk. Has anyone looked up, lately, the meaning of extreme?

Webster's dictionary defines extreme: of the highest degree; last; utmost; furthest; final; most severe or strict; uncompromising.

It seems today when people strive to maintain the principles that our Constitution stands for they are considered "extreme." Yet who are the real extremists?

There are those that are constantly striving and succeeding at changing the principles of our Constitution and Bill of Rights and saying times have changed, we need new laws, the Constitution is out-dated.

Our country was founded on freedom and liberty (didn't the early settlers escape from tyranny?) and the Constitution was set up as a basis for all to live by. It was good then—what is wrong with it today?

Dear Editor:

The PM&L did it again. Their play Little Mary Sunshine was just wonderful as all their plays are. Ken Smouse's directing was just great.

Dr. A. L. Bucar kept the audience laughing with his marvelous acting. Wes Camp and Sydney Morton were so good they just really lived the part they were playing. Betty Beveroth as the opera singer was so good, just like a professional.

The rest of the cast were really wonderful too, and helped make the play a real night of enjoyment.

The music by pianist Cheryl Hughes and on the drums Joe Kanka was a real good job.

We know there are a lot of other people who deserve

As the echoes of the catchy music of the very successful "Little Mary Sunshine" leave the P.M.&L. theatre, the set is being struck and another play is already in rehearsal. This time the plot is especially for the younger generation.

Valerie Hunley is directing "Flibbertygibbet" which is a play for children (of all ages). It will be presented at 2:00 p.m. matinee performances on March 5, 6, 12, and 13. Valerie directed "The Elves and the Shoemaker" last year, and its popularity prompted P.M.&L. to present another play for children.

Flibbertygibbet is an elf-like little magic man who was sent to banish greed from humanity. If he doesn't succeed—he will be banished. Whether he wins or loses will be discovered by the audience.

The cast has been announced as follows: Jay Horton plays the starring role of Flibbertygibbet; Joe Hunley is Gavin, owner of the farm; Adam and Bess (the villains) are Bob Odden and Sandy Drucker; Joyce May is Kate; Phyllis Bucar is Peg; Dan Seyfarth is Granpop; and Pam Hunley is Nanine. Linnea Christiansen will be the stage manager, Nanci Seyfarth will take charge of make-up, Gloria Davis is costume chairman, and Bob Kocmoud is set designer.

Another set of dates to remember is the next regular P.M.&L. play. Joe Hunley is directing "On Borrowed Time" on April 15, 16, 22 and 23. Watch for try-out dates.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Soul" as another name for God will be the subject of Christian Science services this Sunday throughout the world. The sermon will be made up of Biblical references read alternately with corresponding passages from the denomination's textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Bible references will be taken from some of the best loved psalms, including this verse: "The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy O Lord, endureth for ever."

This related statement in Science and Health also will be considered: "From Love and from the light and harmony which are the abode of Spirit, only reflections of good can come."

We are sure happy that we are lucky enough to have this wonderful group in this vicinity. Let's all show our appreciation by going to all these plays. We are sure looking forward to the next one.

Yours truly,
Cecilia Rodney

WHY A COUNCIL
Our local units are a part of the North Shore Area Council. The Boy Scouts of America charters 542 local Boy Scout Councils to serve every community in America. The North Shore Area Council, and all others, is a partnership of communities and sponsoring institutions which pool resources of leadership, money and facilities to provide services which the individual community or sponsoring institution cannot provide for itself.

Responsibility for the operation of Scouting in the territory of the Council is vested in an Executive Board composed of 60 volunteer representatives of all communities. The Executive Board is the policy making group of the Council. It establishes the budget, employs a professional staff, and develops and supervises the entire program. They, and other volunteers, work on the following operating committees:

Organization and Extension, Leadership Training, Advancement, Camping, Activities, Health and Safety, Finance, Properties, Exploring, and Public Relations. Programs and policies developed at the Council level are put into actual operation by volunteer committees on a District level.

Established in 1928, the North Shore Area Council has grown until it now serves 44 communities in Lake and North Cook Counties. For more effective administration, the Council is divided into four districts. These are New Trier, Skokie Valley, Lake Shore, and Northwest. We are in Northwest.

Set Rules To Select Mom For Viet Nam Visit

Servicemen in Viet Nam will have a special Mother's Day visitor if plans of the Viet Nam-Mom Airlift committee work out, it was announced recently by Henry Bogdala, chairman of the project's executive committee.

Mother's Day, May 8, has been picked as the target date for the arrival in Viet Nam of a representative Lake County mother and a troupe of entertainers who will visit service hospitals and rest areas, Bogdala said.

A "Mom" selection committee met Sunday at the home of Mrs. Margaret Rey, Waukegan to select the date and to draft general rules for the selection.

This committee will be augmented with representatives of additional VFW and American Legion Auxiliaries, women's service groups, and other organizations, Bogdala reported.

The Viet Nam-Mom Airlift

project received its first major financial boost this week when the Waukegan Federation of Musicians turned over a check for $1,000 to Eugene Danneberg, project treasurer and President of the Midwest National Bank of Lake Forest.

In making the check presentation Leo Carvis, union president, and Edward Svoboda, secretary-treasurer, expressed the hope that other unions, service clubs, and veterans organizations would follow suit.

Carvis, who is also co-chairman of the entertainment committee, announced that rehearsals for the entertainers who will entertain hospitalized servicemen at Great Lakes, Fort Sheridan, and Downey will be called in the next few days.

The best of these units will be organized into the Viet Nam troupe, Carvis said.

Guy O. Lunn

Lunn Tosses Hat In Ring

Chief Deputy County Treasurer Guy O. Lunn today announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for County Treasurer and is asking support for his candidacy.

Under the Illinois constitution, the County Treasurer cannot succeed himself and former County Treasurer, Guy O. Lunn, is seeking the office now held by Karl Berning, who is a candidate for State Senator in the new 32nd District.

Mr. Lunn will run on his record of efficiency, integrity and service. He believes his experiences and his thorough understanding of the detailed procedures necessary for the operation of the treasurer's office will enable him to administer the office in an economical and workmanlike manner.

This experience would also be helpful in the future development and improvement of the data processing system now used for tax billing and related work. Mr. Lunn first advocated the installation of an electronic computer system in 1956 at the time tax billing equipment was being up-dated and stresses the greater use of mechanized equipment to relieve the increasing work load due to the continued growth of Lake County.

Mr. Lunn and his wife, Grace, live at 1506, 20th St., North Chicago, the city where he was born and where he formerly served on the City Council.

Savings Bond Sales Below Quota In '66

Lake County residents purchased a total of $4,846,506 in series E and H United States savings bonds last year, according to Philip L. Speidel, Lake Forest, general county chairman of the savings bonds committee. This represents 85.1% of the annual quota.

In the state of Illinois annual sales were $339,626,118, according to Arnold J. Rauen, state director of the Treasury's savings bonds division. This represents 94.8% of the state's quota of $358,100,000 and is 3.1% below the 1964 total. National sales for the year were $4,486,138,000, and Illinois sales represented 7.5% of the national total.

The cash value of E and H bonds outstanding at the end of the calendar year was $49,249,000,000. A year ago the figure was $48,366,000,000.

The Law Serves You

A Public Service of the ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

WHAT IS A TITLE ABSTRACT

Have you ever wondered what a lawyer or realtor means when he speaks of an "abstract of title"? Generally stated, an abstract of title is a summary of all the transactions, such as sales or mortgages, which have taken place concerning a particular piece of land since it has been privately owned.

The history of a given piece of land can be studied by looking at the entries in the abstract. Many of these entries describe deeds conveying the land or any part of it, together with a reference to the book and page in the County Recorder's office where a copy of the actual deed can be found.

The abstract will also contain a note of the death of any owner of the land and a reference to the proceedings in the deceased's estate. It concisely explains any provision of the deceased's will involving the land, or if there is no will, the names of known heirs are listed.

Similarly, the abstract shows mortgage or tax foreclosure proceedings relating to the property, and the bankruptcy of an owner. All proceedings having to do with that particular piece of land, since it was first ceded from the United States Government, are listed in an unbroken chain in the abstract.

Who Compiles Abstracts?

Almost all information in an abstract is obtained from local records. The law requires that deeds and mortgages be filed for record in the County Recorder's Office and all estate, foreclosure and bankruptcy proceedings are similarly written in county records.

But when you want to buy a certain lot of land and the seller wants to show you he can give a good title, instead of spending several days floundering through old county records he goes to the local abstractor. He continues the old abstract or prepares a new one from the beginning if the seller does not have one. For a fee based on the number of items involved, the abstractor will review the county records and furnish the seller with an up-to-date "book" or abstract showing the history of the title to the property in question.

Evaluation of Abstracts

Buyers must realize, however, that merely because the seller has a current abstract which shows transfer to him, this is far from adequate proof of clear title. The important and technical task of evaluating abstract entries must be done by legal counsel, who is able to decide whether the seller's "title" is good and free from defects.

"The Law Serves You" is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law.

WHEN YOU MAY REFUSE TO TESTIFY

Publicity in newspapers, radio and television in recent years has drawn considerable attention to the phrase "Taking the 5th Amendment" by witnesses appearing in court or before legislative committees.

Most of our citizens are well aware of the Federal Constitutional right provided in the 5th Amendment whereby a person may not be forced to give evidence against himself if it will tend to incriminate him. Few people, however, are aware of the many ramifications of that provision, as demonstrated by many cases decided before our courts.

Like many of our other laws this privilege came into our Constitution in 1791 from English law. Its birth in English law came about as a result of the attempt during Queen Elizabeth's time to extinguish Puritanism. As a result of these "trials" in which Puritans were forced to testify on oath regarding their beliefs and activities, a public outcry ultimately brought Charles I to abolish the practice in 1641.

The Fifth Amendment Today

The privilege against self-incrimination, as it is employed by U.S. law, generally speaking, permits a person to refuse to testify in a court proceeding if he can establish that the testimony called for would tend to subject him to punishment for violation of a criminal law. This rule does not mean that a witness can ignore a properly issued summons or subpoena and refuse to appear in court. He must respond, appear in court, and then claim his privileges.

It is of interest to note that the protection is not limited to testimony. For example, it has been held to include articles taken from the home of an accused without benefit of a search warrant.

Contempt of Court

Since a witness may decline to answer only those questions which tend to incriminate him, he cannot claim the privilege when asked a question that might tend to disgrace him or harm his reputation, nor can he claim the privilege to avoid incriminating others. A court may hold a witness in contempt where he refuses to testify on these grounds unless it appears from the nature of circumstances of the case and the evidence sought that there is a reasonable basis for concern that witness will be subjecting himself to possible prosecution.

But if the offense which the witness fears may be brought out in his testimony is barred by the statute of limitations, that is, too many years have passed since the crime was committed to permit the State to prosecute him, then the privilege cannot be claimed.

In certain cases a statute or the court may grant a witness immunity from prosecution and require him to testify. By thus removing the threat of prosecution the witness is not subject to self-incrimination as to that offense and may be found in contempt of court if he still refuses to testify.

Civil and Criminal Cases

The constitutional guaranty against self-incrimination extends to all proceedings sanctioned by law. It is not limited to criminal cases and applies to proceedings of a civil nature as well, wherever the answer has the effect of tending to subject the person to criminal prosecution.

In the case of a defendant in a criminal action, he may refuse to testify at all in a prosecution against him. Whether the historical basis for the privilege serves only to protect the guilty from punishment they justly

Scott Favors Special Session

Illinois State Treasurer

William J. Scott said today that he would have no objection to a special session of the Legislature but that he felt that the Governor would have a hard time justifying additional taxes at this time.

Scott pointed out that record tax collections for the month of January have resulted in increased surplus in both the State General Revenue Fund and the State Road Fund.

"After subtracting all outstanding warrants as of January 31, 1966, we had a total surplus in all the General Revenue Funds including Common School and Welfare of $100,348,276, an increase of more than a million dollars over the $98,905,713 balance at the end of December," Scott said.

"In addition the General Road Fund balance was $32,585,236 on January 31, 1966, as compared to $24,505,032 on December 31, 1965 or an increase of over eight million dollars," Scott continued. "Last year at the end of January the State had only $21,155,867 in the Road Fund," Scott added.

"Common School Fund balance as of January 31, 1966 was $21,267,066 or an increase of more than two million dollars over the December 31, 1965 balance of $18,930,187. A year ago at this time we only had $17,670,159 in the Road Fund," Scott stated.

Based on previous experience, the surplus in both the General Revenue Fund and the Road Fund should continue to grow for the next four months," Scott said.

deserve, or whether it is a valuable safeguard against the abuses of a police state, remains the subject of much debate.

Ventriloquist To Visit Grass Lake School

Children in area schools will be entertained by a ventriloquist this week courtesy of their family dentist.

The Chicago Dental Society, in cooperation with school officials, is observing Dental Health Month in Chicago by sponsoring the appearance in assembly halls and classrooms of Joseph H. Vocat and his inanimate friend, "Dr. Roderick Searcher." They will amuse school children with anecdotes about an elephant safari in the "Land of Jungalee" with, of course, a happy dental health ending.

Vocat, son of an Evergreen Park dentist, attended MacAlester College, St. Paul, Minn., and has appeared on radio and in stage and night club productions. His most recent Chicago acting performance was in "Six Ages of Man."

The ventriloquist will be presented at Grass Lake School on Friday, Feb. 11, also at Lake View School and Woodview School, Grayslake, the same day.

On the occasion of Children's Dental Health month in Chicago, Dr. Steve W. Lynch, president of the Chicago Dental Society, offered these five rules for good health to school children and their parents:

1. Brush your teeth after every meal.
2. Try an apple, stalk of celery or a carrot as a between-meal snack.
3. Don't crack nuts or ice cubes, or open bobby pins with your teeth.
4. Wear a mouth guard when engaging in active sports and wear a fastened seat belt when driving or riding in an automobile.
5. See your dentist regularly—as often as he suggests.

Dr. Lynch said that "dental neglect in childhood is a tragedy in that the young person whose dental health is ignored is apt to suffer poor general health."

The Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness urges you to see your eye doctor immediately if your contact lenses are causing any discomfort.

Fascination

This is the time of year to brighten up that winter-weary ego, and what better place to start than at the local beauty parlor?

One of the local beauty emporiums is Fascination, out at the corner of Route 59 and Beach Grove Road. Loretta Miller is the owner of the place, and working with her to beautify the crowning glory of the customers are Rita and Delsie.

Short and curly is the new look for spring—with reservations, says Loretta. Women will still wear the hair style that looks best on them, and your hairdresser will modify the current rage to suit you. But the high-piled, back-combed coiffure is out.

"The new shorter, curlier hair-do is already taking over in New York and even Chicago," Loretta says. "It takes a while for people to get used to the change. But within the next year I'll catch on here."

With the new hair-do's, Loretta says, slight back-combing may be used to give the hair body. And everyone doesn't look good with curly hair, so women will modify the style to suit themselves, with their hairdresser's help.

Yes, the two- or three-color hairdo is a fashion item, Loretta says, but not the sort of thing just everybody is going to go for. "It's a big job, and must be done right to be effective," she says.

Fascination specializes in the sale and care of wigs and wiglets. The wiglets can be done up, and added to your own freshly coiffured hair-do by the operator. And there you are, all ready for that big night. And the week ahead.

Wing Into Spring With A "Dickey Bird" Hair Style

Spring hair styles are for the birds, literally! According to the hair fashion authorities: the most popular styles will be the Dickey-Bird hair fashions, light-hearted and gay styles that will help you wing into Spring with a fresh and romantic outlook.

The new styles were designed to harmonize with new Spring wardrobes by the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association. They will be shown throughout the nation in observance of the 10th anniversary of National Beauty Salon Week.

February 13-19, with the slogan, "Wing Into Spring with a new hair style."

In appearance the new Dickey-Bird styles feature a small head look, almost a petite head look, dramatically accented with softly waved hair that flips up into a crest on one side. This crest can rise high over one eye, or the other, to give a perky, asymmetric balance to the silhouette.

Sometimes the crest flips up like a cockatoo's crown, at other times it spills over like the plumes of a cock. In all cases, it has an airborne lightness, a weightless feeling of softness.

For daytime wear, the rise of the crest is generally more subdued, except for the high fashion devotees who seek that way out look. For evening, the crest is dressed into a high flare with the aid of hair pieces. In all cases, the rise must be carefully proportioned to the individual, so that the elegance of the small head look

Flo's Beauty Shop

Are you in a rut? Have you been wearing your hair in the same style for so long that you're tired of your own reflection in the mirror?

A good place to go for a new hair style is Flo's. Even beauty operators can get in a rut, Flo says. That's why she and her staff go to the Midwest Beauty Show in Chicago.

They see all the new hair styles there, and learn how to achieve them, from stylists who come from all over the U. S. The first week in March is the date of the next one.

Flo Heiselmann is the owner of Flo's Beauty Shop, at Route 59 and Grass Lake Road. Working with her are Kathy, Joy, Debby and Sandy. Flo's been a beauty operator about seven years, the last two in her own shop. Advice for women who want lovely hair? "I wish we could convince them that they'd save themselves a lot of grief and money if they came to us in the first place for permanent styling."

ents and dye jobs," Flo said. "There's always a lot of them who'll try to do it at home, then come to us to undo the damage they've done."

Jacques & Georgia's

Jacques and Georgia's Beauty Shop is at the corner of Routes 59 and 173. Georgia Adams and Jacques Casella are partners in the shop. Assisting them in keeping the locks of Antioch women lovely are June, Bonnie and Merle.

Jacque wasn't there the day we talked with Georgia about what's new in hair styling. They've both been beauty operators for many years, about ten years in the Antioch area. Georgia worked in Jacques's shop before becoming a partner two years ago.

"We attend the Beauty Shows in Chicago twice a year," Georgia says. "It refreshes your talents, keeps you up on the styles."

"Short and curly on top, but hugging the head otherwise," says Georgia. "That's the style for spring. Kind of a frou-frou and Frenchy look."

The wiglets, particularly, will continue to be popular, Georgia says. They give a woman a chance to alter her coiffure, even with the shorter cuts. "After all, there have always been hair pieces," she says. "Only now, women don't try to hide the fact that they're wearing them—they want you to know it."

Contrasting shades in wiglets will be more popular this year, Georgia says. "The new two and three colors for a hair-do—I'm all for it. I love it. Brown, streaked with other shades. Blonde, shaded into brown—it's most attractive."

Georgia has a word of warning for women with graying hair who are getting it dyed. "Always go to a lighter shade than your hair used to be," she says. "A darker shade will make your face look hard."

They both sell and style the wigs and wiglets at Jacques and Georgia's. So try a new hair-do for the coming of spring, ladies. It will give your spirits a lift.

Clare's Beauty Salon

Clara Merryman is the owner of Clare's Beauty Salon at 400½ Lake St., in Antioch. Clara and Gail DeVore are the beauty operators and Candy Meyers is the shampoo girl.

Clara has been six years in the Antioch area and has been at the Lake St. location since August 24.

Clara confirmed the short and curly effect for spring. "A feathery effect," she says. "However, it's going to be hard to get the teenagers to adopt it. They cling to the long hair."

"A scalp treatment is a help in keeping your hair lovely," Clara says. The heat in homes causes a lot of trouble in the winter. It's as bad as the sun in the summer. It causes a lot of skin dryness and wrinkling.

"I use a scientific protein formula for scalp treatments," she said. "For the skin dryness—well, come in and have a facial."

Clara offers all the beauty aids in addition to hair dressing—facials, eyebrow arching, pedicures. "The pedicures will go over big in the summer," she says. "You don't need one very often."

She offers wigs and wiglets for the woman who wants a change, too. "I cut the wigs right on the head," she said, "then I'm sure they're right."

The hard water in this area is another trouble maker for skin and scalp, she says. And you have to take steps to counteract it.

So, some day when you want "the works," for a special occasion or just because you're tired of your present self, visit Clara and let her change the picture.

It's a lark, the new spring hair styles. This is called the lark wing a lovely name for a lovely style.

Nation Salutes Beauty of Women

Special tribute to the beauty of women in the United States is being paid by more than 70,000 members of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association during the 10th anniversary of National Beauty Salon Week, February 13-19, announces Leonard Benner of Bellevue, Wash., president of the professional society of cosmetologists throughout the nation.

This week is dedicated to more beautiful women," said Mr. Benner. "a dedication which everyone can appreciate, not only the beauty experts."

Gaines Pressley of Marietta, Ga., 1st vice president of the association and National Beauty Salon Week Chairman, added,

"During this time, we also appreciate the significant progress made by the beauty profession to bring the finest beauty care to the women of our country."

In observance of the Week, cosmetologists from coast to coast are conducting fashion presentations and special programs highlighting new hair styles for Spring. Their slogan is "Wing Into Spring with a new hair style."

The new styles are also being given to thousands of women confined in charity wards of hospitals, homes for the aged, and similar institutions.

This is a welfare project that has been conducted by members of the professional association for the past 16 years. It has been commended by medical directors of the various institutions for the lift it gives to the morale of patients.

In recognition of this civic program, as well as other contributions of the profession to the welfare of communities, governors and mayors throughout the nation have proclaimed February 13-19 as National Beauty Salon Week.

This is also a tribute to one of our country's most precious assets, beautiful women.

In hair lengths for Spring, chic hair is short hair. Exact lengths depend upon individual needs. The shaping must be done professionally for your own requirements. This is particularly true, since you actually need two different kinds of haircuts for the new Dickey-Bird styles. Hair at the sides and nape area is textured for a snug fit. This is absolutely necessary for small head elegance. Hair at the top and back crown area is shaped to flare out, or up, into wavelet patterns.

In hair coloring, the one color look is definitely out. Color is now used in combinations of natural shadings to create new harmonies and new proportions for your hair style. Termed "echo coloring," by the experts, color of one area is echoed subtly by a harmonizing color value in another area to enhance the design of the coiffure. Thus, hair coloring, as well as hair setting and shaping, becomes an integral factor in the design of Spring hair fashions.

New hair colors will reflect the brightened and lightened palettes of Spring wardrobes. Blonde shades ranging in value from soft porcelains through creams and filtered sunlight will be among the most popular colors. Lightened brown tones will echo Indian curry and nutmeg shades. Red heads will have echo tones of licorice and smoke, but discreetly used. The greater the depth of shade, the more subtle must be its use.

In make-up, Spring's face of fashion has a health glowing complexion. This is a soft and delicate natural look, fresh and dewy for Spring. Eye make-up will feature natural shades for eyebrows and false lashes to echo colors of the hair.

Jane O. Robbins

Lecturer To Discuss Human Potential

"What Is Your Potential?" will be answered from a Christian Science point of view by lecturer Jane O. Robbins, C. S., who speaks in Antioch on Saturday, February 12.

Her public appearance here is being sponsored by First Church of Christ, Scientist. The lecture will begin at 8 p.m. in Antioch Community Consolidated Grade School Auditorium, 817 Main St., corner of Depot St.

Miss Robbins is a Christian Science practitioner who attended Pine Manor Junior College and the University of Colorado, taught music for several years, and served during World War II as a pilot and Group Commander in the Women Air Forces Service. After the war she spent some time in Alaska and flew at different times as a bush pilot in the Nome-Point Barrow area. Later, she returned to Illinois and became a representative for an aircraft corporation. She is a native of Ontario, Canada.

In 1955, Miss Robbins moved to Colorado and began devoting her full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing. She is now on tour as a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Proclaim Dental Health Week

Children's Dental Health Week will be observed in Illinois by proclamation of Gov. Otto Kerner, Feb. 6-12. Dr. Arthur Baker, director of the Lake County Health Department, has announced.

Purpose of the week, which is observed nationally, is to promote awareness of the importance of good dental health among children.

Tooth decay afflicts more people today than any other disease," Dr. Baker said. "More than 90 per cent of Americans have advanced tooth decay by age 16, and 50 per cent of all two-year-olds have one or more decayed teeth."

"Illinois dental records of more than 110,000 children examined between ages 6 and 15 showed an average of six dental defects per child."

According to national surveys, half of the children under age 15 have never been to a dentist.

"Unattractive and defective teeth can cause a child to become self-conscious and shy, handicapping his personality development and his progress in school," Dr. Baker pointed out. "In addition to the necessity for proper chewing, comfort, general well-being and pleasing appearance, teeth are important in helping to shape the mouth and face."

"Dental health cannot be separated from the total health of an individual. The health of the mouth is important in maintaining the health of the rest of the body. Dental disease can trigger serious disease elsewhere in the body."

"School dental health programs should be emphasized during the week beginning Feb. 6 to help educate children in how to have clean, healthy teeth and how to preserve them through adulthood, when gum diseases take such a heavy toll of good teeth."

February 15 will earn interest from Feb. 1, as you probably suspected. Looked like a good deal, huh? Well, it still is.

COURTS OF HONOR TO BE OBSERVED BY SCOUTS

Many troops of the North-west district of the North Shore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, will hold their own "Courts of Honor" during Scout Week February 7 to 13, marking the 5th anniversary of Scouting in America.

At a Court of Honor, a boy receives a new badge or certificate as a sign that he has successfully met a challenge or goal in the Scouting program.

"Before a Scout receives his recognition, he must prove to the satisfaction of his leaders that he has met the established standards in each phase of the program," Dean Ray, advancement chairman of the Northwest District said.

"The advancement requirements in Boy Scouting," he added, "are a series of hurdles or tests that must be overcome by a boy as he develops and progresses through the ranks from Tenderfoot to Eagle Scout."

The award, Ray commented, signifies that the recipient is prepared to help other people as he grows in character and citizenship.

Dirksen To Speak At Lincoln Day Dinner

Persons still interested in ordering reserve seat tickets for the Waukegan Young Republican Club's Lincoln Day Dinner (Feb. 12), at which Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen will deliver the featured address, may do so this week.

Dinner co-chairmen, Terry Tucker and Edgar Huesing, Jr., say over half the main floor of the Charcol House in Waukegan has already been reserved and tickets will continue to be distributed on a first come, first served basis. A maximum of 400 persons can be accommodated and the dinner is expected to be a sell-out.

Reservations may be mailed to the Waukegan Young Republican Club, 7 N. County St., Waukegan or phoned in to the Republican Federation office. Persons who are in the downtown area may stop in for reservation forms. Tickets are not being sold by individuals.

A closed circuit television unit will be installed so that all guests will be able to see, as well as hear, the Senator. This will be the first appearance in Lake County for Senator Dirksen in over two years and the only major address by the leading Republican in the state on Lincoln's birthday.

Another highlight of the program on Feb. 12 will be the Young Republican Club Merit award. Last year's recipient was Mrs. Oakley Peterson and the winner in 1964 was James Hopkins. The award is given to a local person who has made an outstanding contribution to the Republican Party. This is the third year the Merit award is to be given.

What Is A Cub Scout?

Between the innocence of babyhood and the dignity of manhood we find a delightful creature called a Cub Scout. Cub Scouts come in assorted sizes, weights and colors but they all have the same creed: To enjoy every second, of every minute of every hour of the Den meeting and protest with noise, their only weapon, when it's time to go.

Cub Scouts are found everywhere—on top of, under, inside of, climbing on, swinging from, running around and jumping to. Den Mothers love them, Den Chiefs tolerate them, Cub Masters enjoy them and Heaven protects them.

A Cub Scout is Truth with glue on his uniform, a whittler with a cut on his finger, wisdom in blue and gold and the hope of the future with a neckerchief slide in his pocket.

When you play a new game a Cub Scout becomes a jungle of noise. When you want him to make a good project, his brain turns to jelly or else becomes a savage jungle creature bent on destroying the world and himself with it, only to show up next meeting with the project done and a smile on his face.

A Cub Scout is a composite, he has the appetite of a horse, the energy of a pocket-size atomic bomb, the curiosity of a cat, the lungs of a dictator, the imagination of Paul Bunyan, the shyness of a violet, the audacity of a steel trap, the enthusiasms of a firecracker and when he makes something he has five thumbs on each hand.

He likes den treats, scout knives, saws, Christmas, scout books, other boys' woods, water in its natural habitat, large animals, trains, fire trucks, Den Dads, and Saturday mornings. He is not much for school, music lessons, neckties, barbers, girls, overcoats or bedtime.

Nobody else is so early to rise, nobody else gets so much fun out of trees, dogs and breezes. Nobody else can cram into one pocket, a Cub Scout knife, 3 feet of string, left over Den treats, 6 cents and a chunk of some unknown substance.

A Cub Scout is a magical creature—you can't lock him out of your heart—he is your captor. Might as well give up—a freckled face, pint-size, cat-chasing bundle of noise. But he can mend your hopes and dreams and build you a future with a smile and only one word "Hi."

Cancer Program On Station WKRS

Moderator of the panel discussion will be Mrs. Margaret Harris, Director of Nursing at Victory Memorial Hospital. Panelists will be Dr. Peter L. Vinciguerra, Libertyville; The Rev. R. Claiborne Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Waukegan; Mrs. Carolyn Paulson, Staff Nurse at Downey Hospital, and Sister Joseph, Supervisor of Medical-Surgical Nursing at St. Therese Hospital.

Only Electricity—

Dries your clothes with the same kind of gentle radiant heat you get from the sun.

Flameless electric drying is gentle, because it works with radiant heat like the sun. The only difference is it's controlled. You dial exactly the heat you need, for the clothes you want to dry. Whites stay white, colors stay bright, sizes won't change because of harsh overdrying or scorching. Another thing. Radiant electric dryers are flameless, so there are no fumes or by-products of combustion. Clothes come out clean and fresh as all outdoors.

Makes it easier to be a good cook with precise, temperature-calibrated controls.

Larger heating surfaces allow cooking at lower temperatures, require much less water, so food retains more vitamins, flavor, color and texture. Oven cooking is faster because less pre-heating is required. More moisture is retained because only electric ovens are insulated on all six sides. Meals are juicier, cakes richer. And because electric cooking is flameless, kitchens stay cooler, pots and pans and kitchen walls stay cleaner.

Gives you greater heating comfort, greater flexibility than any other type heat.

Electric heat offers 5 basic systems that can be used separately or teamed together, depending on heating requirements. Advantages include: room-by-room temperature control; uniform temperature; elimination of hot and cold spots; simple, low-cost installation of air conditioning where desired. What's more, there's no flame, so it's safer—and, with no burning fuel residue, there's nothing to create dirt or run up decorating costs.

Sequoits Drop Overtime Game

Tyrone Walls scored 31 points Friday night at Gurnee but it wasn't enough as the Sequoits dropped an overtime thriller to Warren 82 to 78. The Sequoits trailed by as much as 16 points in the first period and were behind by 12 at halftime.

Antioch surged back in the third period, scoring 14 straight points after an opening period basket by Warren. The Sequoits went on to gain a 57 to 54 edge on the Blue Devils before they closed the gap to 59 to 58 at the end of the quarter.

The fourth quarter was an up and down affair with the lead changing hands many times. Neither team led by more than two points in the final stanza. A short jump shot by Walls at the buzzer knotted the score at 74 all for regulation play.

After Walls and Rick Filipowicz exchanged baskets in the overtime period, Warren took the lead for good on a jump shot by Bill Robbins. Filipowicz added two free throws and Walls came back with a layup to make the score 80 to 78. Warren controlled the ball till the closing seconds and a 15 footer by Glenn Bernstein accounted for the final score.

Highlight of the game was the scoring duel between Tyrone Walls and Warren's Bill Robbins. Robbins ended with 32 points compared to 31 for Walls. Walls also picked off 17 rebounds and did an outstanding defensive job on Warren's high scoring forward Rick Filipowicz. Filipowicz was limited to 15 points, eight of them coming in the final minutes.

Sequoits Bounce Back Against Zion

The Sequoits refused to let the heartbreaking loss to Warren Friday bother them and came back Saturday to whip Zion-Benton 72 to 67. Hitting with deadly accuracy from the free throw line the Sequoits added their 12th win of the season before a home court crowd.

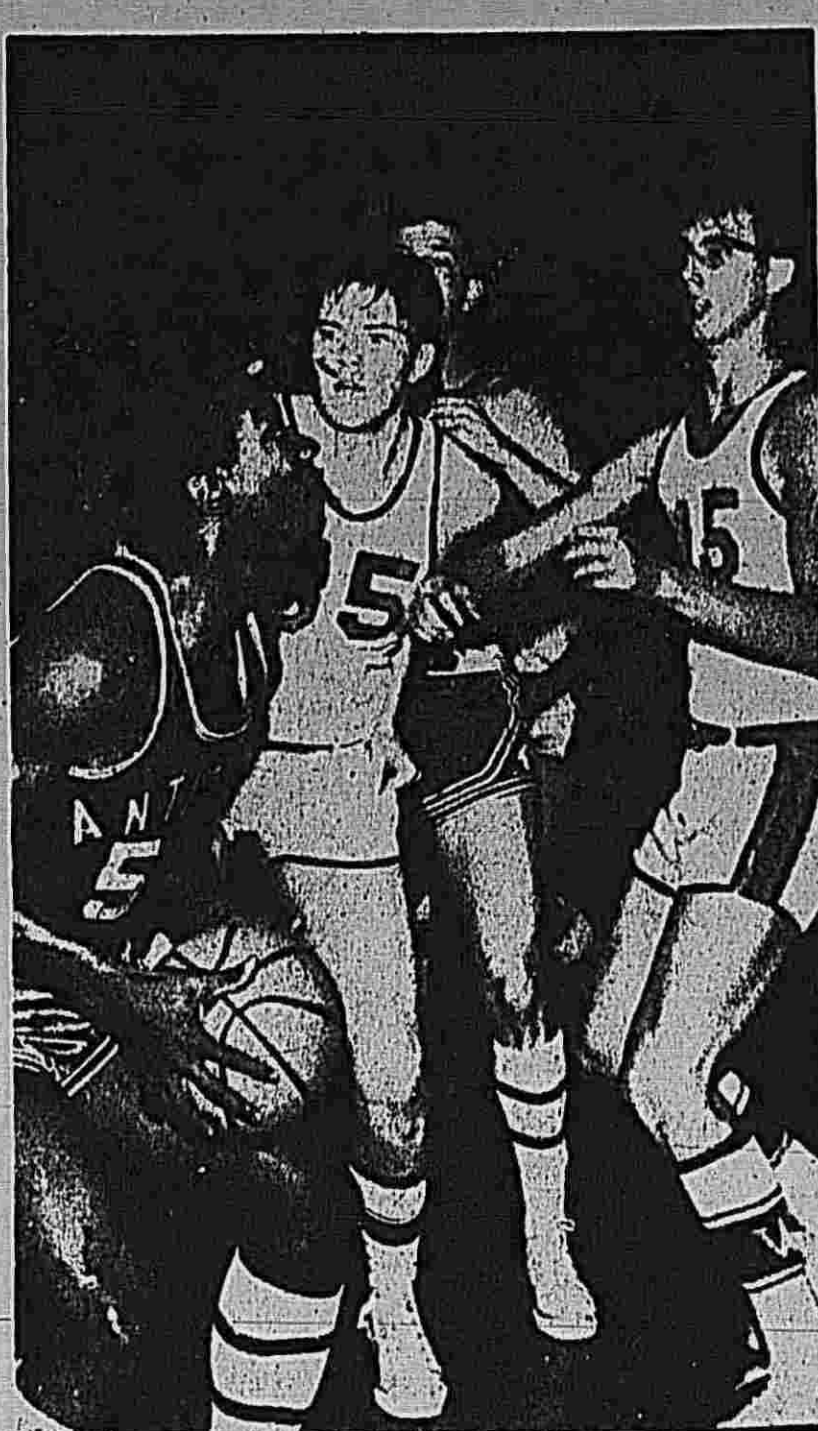

Trailing 17 to 11 at the end of the first period the Sequoits surged back to take a one-point edge at halftime 28-27. Antioch was never behind after that, leading by as much as 11 points at one stage.

Leading 49 to 43 going into the final stanza the Sequoits maintained their edge throughout the quarter finally winning by the five point margin.

The Sequoits actually won from the free throw line, cashing 30 charity tosses to 13 for Zion. The Zeeboes outscored the Sequoits from the field 27-21.

Tyrone Walls and Mike Sterbenz shared scoring honors with 25 points each. Walls had five baskets and 15 of 18 attempts from the free throw line. Sterbenz hit 9 baskets and 7 free throws. Greg Hatt was high for Zion with 27 points.

The Sequoits have another double header coming up this weekend meeting Lake

Traffic got a little crowded under the basket Friday night as Antioch's Tyrone Walls tries to get in for a shot against two Warren defenders. Antioch lost in overtime 82-78.

Zion Friday night and then a home game against Grayslake Saturday night. Featured Saturday night will be the Sequoits' annual Parents' Night Program.

Sequoit Sophs Keep Grip On Second Place

Antioch's Soph squad tightened their grip on second place in the Northwest Conference race Friday night with a 57-41 win over Warren on the losers court.

The Antioch quint jumped out to an early 17-11 first period lead only to see it fade in a low scoring second quarter. The Sequoits managed to cash only one basket in 13 attempts in the second period while their opponents ended with 10. Antioch found themselves trailing the Blue Devils at halftime 21-20.

The Sequoits preps took command in the third quarter, however, dumping in 15 points to take a 35-20 lead going into the final stanza. A 22 point burst in the last quarter accounted for the final 57-41 margin.

Tony Barnett and Joel Strahan were the top scorers with 16 and 12 points respectively. Strahan shared rebounding honors with Bill Smith, ending with 8 and 9.

In spite of the poor second quarter the Sequoits hit well from the field, cashing 22 of 54 attempts for 41%.

Con. Edison Explains Blackout

(Editor's Note: Here are excerpts from a special letter issued by Consolidated Edison Company of New York to its stockholders.)

The widespread power interruption in the northeast on the evening of November 9th affected an area of some 80,000 square miles that included New York State, most of New England, parts of Canada, and small areas in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The disturbance started on the Ontario Hydro Commission system just north of Niagara Falls. This initiated a cascading loss of generating capacity in up-state New York that threw a sudden huge load on New England and downstate New York. The unprecedented magnitude and nature of this load was such that the remaining facilities could not pick it up, and the balance of the interconnected system, including nearly all of Con Edison's, shut down.

The outage on the Company's system occurred shortly after the local electric peak for the day. At 5:00 p.m. the Company was generating 4,550,000 kilowatts, and, in addition, was receiving 220,000 kilowatts from interconnected systems, principally from the north. At that time we had 1,350,000 kilowatts in reserve generation on our system ready to pick up additional load in event of an emergency. The successive losses of generating capacity north of our system, however, resulted in such a huge sudden load being thrown on the Company's facilities that the reserve generation could not respond quickly enough to pick it up. As loading conditions on our equipment reached the danger point, our generating stations were shut down to prevent electrical damage. For the most part, this was accomplished successfully. Nevertheless, generating units with a combined capacity of 1.5 million kilowatts did sustain some mechanical damage. We have been working continuously since the interruption to bring these units back into service.

Some people have asked why it took longer to restore complete electric service in New York City than in other areas. The answer is that no other electric system as immense, complex and concentrated as New York City's and the Company had no quick-starting hydroelectric generating capacity to assist in the process. The Company has already proposed to add such capacity to its system. The planned Cornwall pumped storage hydroelectric plant would provide a huge spinning reserve that could be quickly made available to deal with sudden emergencies.

Con Edison and the other New York and New England utilities serving the affected areas, have retained the engineering consulting firm of Stone & Webster to make an exhaustive analysis of the entire interconnected system. These studies are aimed at determining any changes that are needed to guard against a recurrence of the November 9 failure, and to determine any modifications that might be required.

Taxpayer Entitled To Personal Exemption

PERSONAL EXEMPTIONS

Every taxpayer is entitled to use his own personal exemption of $600 on his Federal income tax return, said E. C. Coyle, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue in Chicago.

A calendar year taxpayer whose 65th birthday was no later than January 1, 1966, or who was blind at the end of 1965 is entitled to an additional $600 exemption; if he is 65 and blind, he gets two additional $600 exemptions.

The taxpayer's wife is also entitled to these additional exemptions for age and blindness if she qualifies.

The Revenue Service said a taxpayer who files a separate return may claim his wife's personal exemption and additional exemptions only if she had no income and was not the dependent of another taxpayer.

If your wife or husband died in 1965, you may claim on your separate income tax return all the exemptions to which she was entitled for the year, if she had no income. But if she did have any income, and you want to claim her deductions, you must file a joint return that includes her income.

Document No. 5013, which furnishes more detailed information on this subject, may be obtained by writing to Tax-Forms, P. O. Box 1193, Chicago, Illinois 60690.

EXEMPTIONS—DEPENDENT CHILDREN

Illinois taxpayers are entitled to one $600 exemption on Federal income tax returns for 1965 for each dependent child they have. The Internal Revenue explains that in tax law, the term "child" includes a step-child, a legally adopted child, or a child placed by an authorized agency in the taxpayer's home for legal adoption. The child must usually be

Name Chairman of Cancer Crusade

Edward R. Kenefick, vice president, CBS Television Stations Division and General Manager of WBBM-TV, has been named chairman of the 1966 Crusade in the Seventh District, Illinois Division, American Cancer Society.

Mr. Kenefick will direct the Crusade activities of the thousands of volunteers in the eight units of the District which include Chicago and Cook, Lake and DuPage Counties. Announcement of this appointment is made by Dr. A. H. Sommers, chairman, Lake County Unit.

During April, Crusaders "tell their neighbors" the lifesaving story of the American Cancer Society's cancer control program as they distribute the Society's literature, then give each individual the opportunity to contribute to the state Crusade goal of $2,150,000. A graduate of the University of Notre Dame, and a former special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Chairman Kenefick became general sales manager of WBBM in 1960. Prior to that he was a member of the WCBS-TV, New York sales staff and an account executive with NBC-TV Spot Sales in New York.

The goal for Lake County is $70,000. Mr. Robert Diemeyer, Waukegan, is Lake County Crusade Chairman.

A citizen or resident of the United States, or a resident of Canada, Mexico, Panama, or the Canal Zone to qualify as a dependent for tax purposes.

The general rule is that a child must have had less than $600 income for the year to be a dependent. However, if the child was under 19 years of age, or a full-time student during some part of 5 months of the year, the parents may claim his exemption if they provided more than one-half of the child's support, even though the child had income of $600 or more.

In determining whether an individual is a dependent compare the amount of support he receives with the entire amount of support which the individual received from all other sources, including support provided by the individual's own funds. Parents cannot claim the exemption if the child was married and filed a joint return with his or her spouse.

If a child was born or died during the year, a full $600 exemption is allowable if the child met the dependency requirements during the part of the year he was alive.

HIKE MUSTANG ALLOCATION IN CHICAGO AREA
Chicago area Ford dealers will get 6,757 Mustangs in the first quarter of 1966, two-thirds more than the allocation for the corresponding period this year. D. O. Wiggins, district manager for the Ford division of Ford Motor company, said the increase should be a considerable reduction in delivery time. The Chicago Ford division is composed of 22 dealers in the Lake Michigan area.
